

BIO:

Amanda Baker (b.1994) is a Brooklyn-based interdisciplinary artist, educator, and current MFA candidate at Pratt Institute. She received a BFA in printmaking from Massachusetts College of Art and Design in 2016. Her work centers around natural history and wildlife conservation. Alongside her studio practice, Amanda participates in bird and wildlife conservation projects. Her work has been exhibited in various group shows.

Instagram:
@amandaevebaker