

BIO:

Nico Sun is a New York based multi-disciplinary artist, who was born in Nanjing, China. Sun primarily produces artwork on paper, but he works across mediums from object making to performance and video. Sun uses his humorous visual language and printmaker's approach to turn the often-neglected elements of everyday people and objects into his subject's matter.

Sun graduated from the school of the art institute in 2019 and is currently an MFA candidate at Pratt institute.
